A RESOLUTION

- 1 Commending the CDC Foundation and declaring May 4, 2005, the 10th Anniversary of the
- 2 CDC Foundation in Georgia; and for other purposes.
- 3 WHEREAS, the year 2005 marks the 10th anniversary of the CDC Foundation, and the
- 4 Foundation celebrates a decade of heroes and a decade of helping the Centers for Disease
- 5 Control and Prevention (CDC) do more, faster; and
- 6 WHEREAS, the CDC Foundation recognizes heroes who have contributed their time, talent,
- 7 innovation, and resources to fight threats to health and safety by supporting CDC programs;
- 8 and
- 9 WHEREAS, established by Congress, the Foundation began operating in 1995 as an
- 10 independent, nonprofit entity committed to forging effective partnerships between CDC and
- 11 individuals, foundations, and corporations to fight threats to health and safety. The
- 12 Foundation can accept funding and responsibly create programs that help donors and CDC
- 13 scientists achieve their common goals; and
- 14 WHEREAS, in the first 10 years of operation, the CDC Foundation has raised more than
- 15 $100 million in resources to help CDC do more, faster. These gifts range from $1 to $10
- 16 million and come from international organizations, foundations, corporations, and from
- 17 people who learned about CDC's amazing work and wanted to help; and
- 18 WHEREAS, for more than 50 years, CDC has been this country's leading organization in
- 19 addressing public health threats and in preventing and controlling infectious and chronic
- 20 diseases, injuries, workplace hazards, disabilities, and environmental threats; and
- 21 WHEREAS, headquartered in Atlanta, CDC plays a significant role in Georgia's public
- 22 health industry and the state's economy by employing thousands of research professionals,
- 23 technicians, and support teams at dozens of facilities and offices throughout the state of
